📺 Bright TV Viewership Analysis
Data Architecture & Insights Flow

START

OBJECTIVE

Analyze BrightTV viewership data to understand audience behavior, content performance, and engagement patterns for CVM insights

Business Questions

- Top channels by viewing hours?
- Which audience groups watch the most?
- Peak viewing days?
- Best time periods?
- Viewer engagement levels?

DATA SOURCE

User Profiles (UserID, Age, Gender, Province)
+
Viewership (UserID, Channel, DateTime, Duration)

Cleaning

DATA CLEANING
- Rename columns (Channel2 → Channel)
- Convert RecordDate → Timestamp
- Convert Duration → Seconds
- Fix Province names
- Create Age Groups

JOIN

DATA JOIN
Join User Profiles + Viewership ON UserID

Left Join

Features

📈 MASTER SUMMARY TABLE
Group by:
Channel, Province, Age_Group, Day, Time
Metrics:
- Total Views
- Unique Viewers
- Total Hours
- Engagement Levels

ANALYSE Table

📊 ANALYSIS TABLE
Clean + enriched dataset (BrightTV Analysis)

analysis

- Channel Performance
- Age Group Trends
- Province Performance
- Day & Time Trends
- Engagement Breakdown

dashboard

- KPI Cards (Views, Hours, Users)
- Channel Chart
- Audience Charts
- Time Analysis
- Engagement Split

insights

- Sports content dominates
- Weekend peaks
- Afternoon & Prime Time strongest
- 25–44 core audience
- Gauteng leads viewing

💡 RECOMMENDATIONS

💡 RECOMMENDATIONS
- Invest in sports content
- Target weekend campaigns
- Focus on key age groups
- Optimize scheduling
- Improve engagement strategies